ACP STATISTICS
(K300)

DESCRIPTION
Indiana University's Advance College Project (ACP) provides students with the opportunity to earn college credit for high school courses taken. Students successfully completing ACP Statistics would receive 3-hours of college credit for K300.

BENEFITS
- Guaranteed college credit (not dependent on AP Exam Score)
- Longer time to cover material (2 semesters vs 1 semester)
- Smaller class
- Senior focus
- Grades transfer?

MAJORS REQUIRING K300

Accounting	Finance	Nursing
Atmospheric Science	Geography	Optometry
Astronomy	Geology	Public & Environ Affairs
Biology	HPER	Psychology
Business	Informatics	Sociology
Criminal Justice	Journalism	Social Work
Economics	Kinesiology	Speech & Hearing Sciences
Environmental Science	Mathematics	Statistics
Exercise Science	Nutrition Science	Telecommunications

MINIMUM ACP REQUIREMENTS
- Top 50% of class
- GPA of 2.5
- SAT (Verbal/Math) score of 1000 or ACT score of 22

COST
$25.00/credit hour (tuition waiver available for students receiving free or reduced lunch)

PROCEDURE
Register through www.acp.indiana.edu/student from:

MORE INFORMATION
www.acp.indiana.edu